The Official Memorandum is suitable & I can't think of any fresh Suggestions.

Re Instruction No (1), I would suggest that, instead of all the abstracts being sent to me on a Wednesday, they might be sent to me every day as soon as the orders to which they relate issue. A minor suggestion in this connection is that three copies of the abstracts may be sent to me.

(This would facilitate my work somewhat.)

In parts IV & V of the Publicity Journal, there is ample room for Heads of Departments particulars of the duties of their Departments—

N. B.—Should routine notes be written on small slips, the notes must be copied, or slips pasted on this form.

Material for the Journal. It may perhaps be too much to expect them just at present to contribute notes, pleasts. But it would be desirable to ask them to send a brief monthly Summary of the main activities of the departments during the month. A para may perhaps be added to the memo. Otherwise I scarcely see how I am to get matter for these parts.
